

EMT-Resources.com

Sample Module 7 Quiz

1. Which of the following statements about driving emergency vehicles in intersections is FALSE?
 - A) Emergency vehicles should follow one another very closely when passing through intersections.
 - B) You should stop before entering any intersection that has a red light or stop sign in your direction.
 - C) You must be alert for drivers who pass others stopped at intersections.
 - D) You must be on the alert for drivers who time the lights.
2. You arrive at the scene of an automobile crash where a car has been struck by a semi-trailer truck. The truck is displaying a placard, and there appears to be a haze around the rear doors of the trailer. Which of the following steps is NOT considered proper procedure?
 - A) Obtain MSDS sheets from the driver of the truck.
 - B) Clear the area and secure the scene.
 - C) Do nothing and continue the normal assessment process.
 - D) Contact law enforcement for assistance.
3. Your team has responded to a motor vehicle crash where you are greeted by a man who states that he is a physician and continues to direct care. You should:
 - A) contact medical control.
 - B) excuse him from the scene.
 - C) have the police arrest him.
 - D) follow his direction.
4. Where do most ambulance accidents happen?
 - A) railroad crossings
 - B) cities
 - C) rural areas
 - D) intersections
5. In automobile crashes, the quickest access is through the:
 - A) side window.
 - B) door.
 - C) rear window.
 - D) windshield.

EMT-Resources.com

Sample Module 7 Quiz

6. Which of the following steps is NOT a priority while you are removing an injured patient from a wrecked vehicle?
 - A) Maintain spinal immobilization.
 - B) Move the patient; not the immobilization device.
 - C) Protect the patient from hazards.
 - D) Splint extremity fractures.

7. When transporting a patient in cardiac arrest to the emergency department, you should:
 - A) request a police escort.
 - B) realize that most motorists might not hear your siren.
 - C) use the same preplanned route regardless of traffic conditions.
 - D) not use your lights or siren, since the patient will probably die anyway.

8. Your first safety concern at the scene of an extrication is to:
 - A) public safety officials.
 - B) yourself.
 - C) the patient.
 - D) the bystanders.

9. You are called to the scene of an automobile crash with four injured patients. Which of the following patients needs your immediate care?
 - A) unconscious patient who is breathing and has a pulse, with a possible dislocation of the hip
 - B) conscious patient who is alert and crying, with a possible broken arm
 - C) conscious patient who is responsive to loud vocal stimuli, with a large bleeding laceration on the arm
 - D) unconscious patient who is not moving but has a pulse, is blue in color, and is not breathing

10. The first course of action you should take once you are at the scene of a hazardous materials incident is to:
 - A) report to the incident commander.
 - B) begin patient triage.
 - C) contain the hazardous spill.
 - D) attempt patient rescue.

EMT-Resources.com

Sample Module 7 Quiz

Answer Key

1. A Emergency vehicles should follow one another very closely when passing through
2. C Do nothing and continue the normal assessment process.
3. A contact medical control.
4. D intersections
5. B door.
6. D Splint extremity fractures.
7. B realize that most motorists might not hear your siren.
8. B yourself.
9. D unconscious patient who is not moving but has a pulse, is blue in color, and is not
10. A report to the incident commander.